SHAKESPEARE CELEBRATION AT CONN. COLLEGE.

Planting of Ivy and Trees as Memorial Features of Week's Programme.

The Shakespeare celebration at Connecticut college was appropriately begun by a May morning hymn sung on the east steps of New London Hall. A number of alder trees representing the college choir mounts Magdalen Tower and sings the Latin Hymnus Eucharisticus, part of the old Requiem Mass sung for Henry VIII. The college glee club under the direction of Dr. L. A. Coerne sang the hymn to an interested group of college people.

The weekly convocation on Tuesday, May 2, was brought into the Shakespeare atmosphere by a lecture given by Dr. Alice I. Perry, Wood of the college faculty on "Women of Shakespeare's Time."

On Wednesday classes were abandoned and students and townspeople gathered for the series of lectures given throughout the day by members of the faculty, as follows:

The Age of Shakespeare
H. W. Crandall
Shakespeare in Deutschland
Professor H. Z. Kip (in German)
Shakespeare's Use of Classical Literature
Professor Irene Nye
The Philosophy of Shakespeare
Dr. Nam Clark Barr
Shakespeare: Man and Artist

President F. H. Sykes following the precedent established throughout the country during the Tercentennial year the college planted ivy and trees as memorials to the celebration. On Wednesday just after luncheon the students gathered at New London Hall where a Shakespeare ivy was set in the ground by Miss Maranda Prentice, president of the class of 1919.

The dormitories did the same for the houses and three English walnut trees, home elms and maples, the latter the gift of the city were also planted.

Student Themes Read.

On Thursday morning a set of student themes were read, the best of a number submitted in competition, and afterward President Sykes showed slides representing the most of the Stratford and London haunts associated with Shakespeare's name.

Thursday evening was given over to Shakespeare music and old-time dances. Cards were sold and Thames Hall filled to capacity by college people and visitors from New London. The programme was as follows:

Overture to the "Merry Wives of Windsor"
Violins: Miss W. E. Cherkasky, Miss Clementina E. Jordan, Violoncello, Miss Virginia C. Rose, Pianoforte, Miss Grace Cockings.
"Orpheus with his Lute"

PRIZE SPEAKING CONTEST AT POQUETANUCK.

Clarence Spicer Takes First Prize in Senior Class, and Miss Rachel Gallup in Junior Class.

An enthusiastic audience listened to the prize speaking contest of the Poquetanuck public school which was held in the parish house, Poquetanuck, Wednesday evening. The speaking was of special merit and the elocutionary excellence delivered was very unusual for pupils of their age and for the length of time spent in training.

The judges of the contest were Attorney Charles L. Stewart of this city, Rev. G. F. Goodenough of Ledyard and L. A. Crandall of the Norwich Commercial school.

The prize winners were: Seniors—First, Clarence Spicer; second, Harriet Williams; honorable mention, Helen Weeder. Juniors—First, Miss Rachel Gallup; second, Miss Pearl Fish and Miss Maud Woolley. As the two contestants for second prize in the junior contest spoke so well, the judges awarded Miss Fish the prize and awarded Miss Woolley a special money prize made up by the judges.

The contest was under the direction of the state supervisor, G. C. Swift. The teachers of the school were as follows: Miss Taylor, Miss Stone, Miss Sophia Hollowell.

ARRANGING SPECIAL MEETING.

Y. M. C. A. Has Invited G. A. R. and Other Organizations to Attend Sunday Meeting.

On the coming Sunday afternoon at 3.30 p. m. there will be held in the large store of the Thayer building, under the auspices of the local Y. M. C. A., a meeting of unusual interest and while the service is form members of the G. A. R. and kindred organizations the general public will be welcomed.

The Y. M. C. A. has invited the Grand Army men, the Woman's Reserve Corps, the Sons of Veterans and the Boy Scouts.

The speaker will be Attorney Chas. L. Stewart, who has been heard on several occasions with pleasure. He has selected as his subject "The Heroes of Connecticut" and the address will certainly be an interesting one.

In addition to the address there will be special music by Swann's orchestra.

As You Like It on a stage built for the occasion and screened with laurel and fir into a fair representation of the forest of Arden. Tickets were sold for this evening, also, and the hall packed to capacity. The Thursday and Friday evenings, together brought in over a hundred dollars. The play was under the direction of Miss Josephine D. Sutton, secretary to President Sykes.

The week ended with a solemn Supper, held in Thames Hall on Saturday evening, May 6. The hall, dimly lighted with rows of candles set along the narrow board tables, was filled with folk of Elizabeth's time, lords and ladies, country men and ladies, serving people, and at the Lord's feet, the court fester. One hundred and thirty college people took every place available and enjoyed the rare sensation of pies of Paris, hennies in graue, and tartlettes, prepared according to antithodox Elizabethan receipts.

The general committee in charge of the arrangements for the supper comprised Mrs. Eugene Saunders, Mrs. Jerome F. Conant, Mrs. Herman Pukallus, Mrs. Howard Reville and E. H. Berry. The supper was assisted by Mrs. Herbert R. Branche and Mrs. Charles A. Hagberg.

The waitresses were Mrs. Clarence Barber, Mrs. Feleg Bromley, Mrs. Charles A. Gager, Jr., Mrs. Susie Tallbridge, Mrs. Jennie Mitchell, Mrs. William Murray, Miss Annie Pukallus and Miss Hattie Thomas.

The lecturers programme was omitted as the degree work took up a good part of the evening. The meeting was one of the most largely attended this season and unusual interest was shown in the business transacted. Norwich grange is rapidly increasing its membership and is one of the most prominent organizations in the city.

PEARL STREET PUPILS HEARD ADDRESSES.

Comrades Saunders and Willey Were Accompanied by Scout Commissioner Bruce.

Tuesday at 10 a. m. Comrades George R. Saunders and Edward Willey of Sedgwick post visited Pearl street school, the former addressing the pupils, who were assembled in the large room. The visitors were accompanied by Scout Commissioner Benjamin M. Bruce, who escorted them to the work of the Boy Scouts, and by Rev. F. W. Coleman, who also addressed the children in an interesting way.

Wednesday morning Sachem street school was visited by Comrades Willey and Saunders and Rev. C. A. Northrop. The visitors were met by two Boy Scouts, who escorted them into the building, where the children were assembled in one room. Patriotic addresses were made and at the close the children sang hymns.

In the various schools the visitors were cordially welcomed.

Today (Thursday) the G. A. R. men will visit Thamesville and Greenville schools and tomorrow they will go to the Mt. Pleasant street building.

MAY ACCEPT LARGER POSTAL SAVINGS DEPOSITS

Postmaster John P. Murphy is Notified of New Legislation.

According to a notice received by John P. Murphy larger postal savings deposits will now be accepted at the local office. This has been made possible by an important amendment to the postal savings act just approved by President Woodrow Wilson.

A postal savings deposit may now have an account amounting to $1,000 upon which interest will be paid. Formerly $500 was the maximum amount he could have to his credit. This enlargement of postal savings facilities will be very gratifying to thousands of depositors who have already reached the old $500 limit and are anxious to entrust more of their savings to Uncle Sam. Another feature of the amendment that will avoid further embarrassment to the public and to local officials is the doing away with the limit on the amount that could be accepted from a depositor monthly.

The old law only $100 could be deposited in a calendar month. The amendment abolishes this restriction. While the postal savings system has already proved a signal success as is shown by the fact that more than half a million depositors have over eighty million dollars standing to their credit, still it has fallen short of meeting the full demands of the public because of the restrictions which have now been eliminated.

EMPLOYEES PRESENT GIFTS TO RETIRING OVERSEER

Jackson Thornes Leaves Hall Bros. Mill to Engage in Other Business.

Jackson Thornes, overseer of carding and spinning for Hall Bros. in their mill at Trading Cove for the past eighteen years, has resigned and after a brief vacation will engage in another line of business.

As a token of their good will and esteem, the employees under his charge presented him with a handsome gold watch chain and charm. Mr. Thornes was completely taken by surprise, but when he had recovered, expressed his appreciation in a few well chosen words.

Are Delegates to Convention.

The convention of the postoffice clerks will be held in New Britain this year on Memorial day, and the delegates from the local office will be the following: John Cunningham and Maurice Eucalypt alternates, Joseph Donnelly and William Saunders.

Incidents In Society

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Preston of Broadway have opened their Neptune Park cottage for the season.

Miss Olive Huntington distributed the favors at the party given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Frank S. Bunnell for her little daughter Catherine.

Invitations have been received by relatives in Norwich to the wedding of Miss Mabel Johnson and Marshall Langhorne, secretary of the Legation at The Hague, on Saturday, May twenty-second at the residence of Miss Johnson's father, Ralph Cross Johnson, 1 street, Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Junius Americus Brand have sent out invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Elsie Dunham, and Mr. James Asbury Edwell, on Wednesday evening, the fourteenth of June, at seven o'clock, in Park Congregational church. The at home cards are due Wednesday, October, at thirteen Scotland Road.

Norwich members were in Fairfield Tuesday to attend the annual meeting of the Colonial Dames followed by luncheon given by Mrs. Oliver Gould Jennings at which 150 were present. Those from Norwich were Mrs. B. P. Leavens, Mrs. George D. Colt, Mrs. Oliver L. Johnson, Miss Caroline T.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Motion Pictures.

The Unwritten Law, with Beatrice Michels in the leading role, was shown Wednesday at the Auditorium to big houses at both afternoon and evening performances, and the general impression seemed to be that this dramatic masterpiece came up in every respect to what the advance advertising made of it. The photoplay follows closely the stage success by the same name and in it Miss Michels shows herself to be an emotional actress of the first water. The story is one of human emotions, but of the better sort for the most part, and is brought up to a wonderful climax in which the star is given ample opportunity to display her exceptional talents. The finish, although strongly dramatic, leaves a pleasant taste in the mouth, and on the whole The Unwritten Law is one of the greatest screen dramas ever seen in Norwich. Beatrice Michels is supported by a very capable cast, prominent in which is Andrew Robson, brother of Eleanor Robson, who is exceptionally good as Larry McCarthy, the betrayer. Worthy of mention also is the work of Baby Felice Rix, who shows wonderful talent for a child of her years. A Pathé news film of current events completes the bill.
